

The Refugee Crisis

a talk plus afternoon tea

Sunday 29 April, 3pm
Crackington Institute

Ian Gasper and John Shinner, trustees of the Cornwall and Devon Refugee Support Centre, will talk about the refugee crisis; what the centre is doing, and what we might be able to help them.

The centre does some wonderful work with refugees and asylum seekers from across Devon and Cornwall, providing English lessons, computer access, legal advice, and clothing and food banks. They also help provide a hot meal three times a week for a group of refugees who would otherwise have none. This has now had to be cut back to twice a week due to lack of funding.

We can promise you an interesting afternoon . . .
and some cake! Hope to see you there.
