14.06 Items from previous meeting

War Memorial – Cllr Findlay & Cllr Ferrett will speak to school to develop a planting plan.

What's important to the Community – Cllr Jarvis reported that approximately 50 responses had been received and an overview was published in the winter issue of the Blowhole. Cllr Jarvis & Cllr Rodda will work up a draft Parish Plan during the next few months.

Highway Issues – Nothing further to report.

Small Works around the village – Only one tentative approach has been received following the Blowhole advert. The Council discussed the overgrown shrubs and plants that are encroaching on the Old Road. Cornwall Council have a standard letter that they send to property owners who fail to keep their plants, shrubs and trees from encroaching on the highway, all the council has to do is advise Cornwall Council which properties and a letter will be sent. Cllr Findlay proposed that the clerk seek a cost for trimming this section of Old Road and if in consultation with the chair it is deemed acceptable to proceed in getting the work done. Seconded by Cllr Day. All in favour. Resolved.
